Accommodation

This year your youth hostel is in Paris! Here is a little map of what's around it:

There are famous spots around your youth hostel, as you can see :for example “La Cigale” and “Le Trianon” where many artists perform.

There are also lots of subway stations near your hostel.

You can check the way you will take to reach “porte Maillot” from Beauvais Airport where you will land. We will come to bring you to your hostel from there !

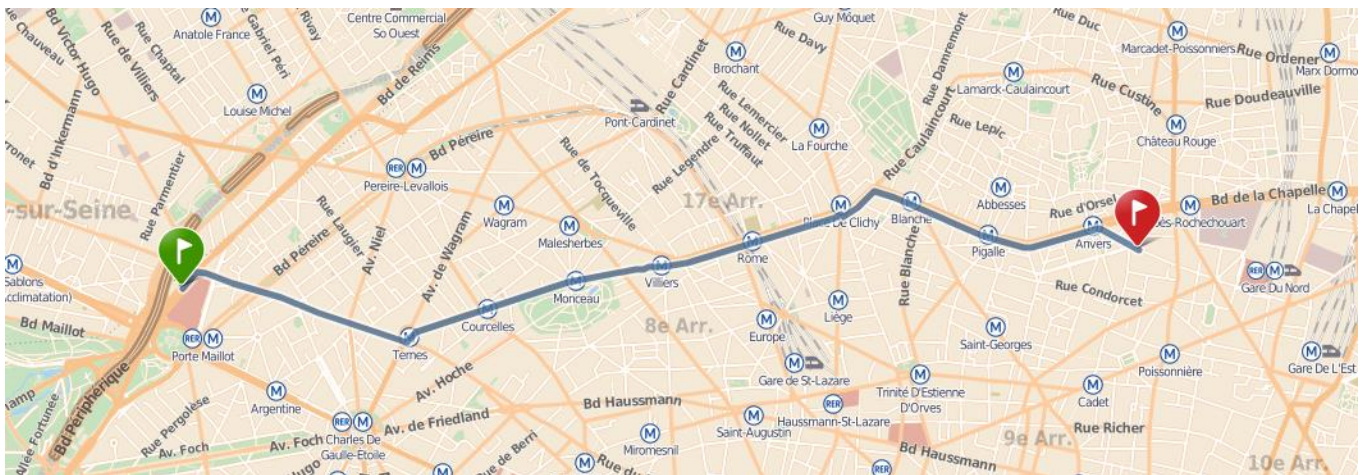

Some shuttles will bring you to the place where we will meet you. Don't forget to buy your ticket online: <https://www.aeroportparisbeauvais.com/acces-et-parking/navette/>

It costs 29 euros for a round-trip ticket. We know it can seem a bit expensive, but once you will be in town we swear it won't matter anymore ! ;)

You will take a shuttle twice : to reach Paris first, and then at the end of this Fly-in.

Beauvais : shuttles parking is between Terminals 1&2. You will land close to that spot.

Paris: shuttles will go from Pershing parking, at 22-24 Pershing Bd. This is where we will meet at the beginning of this fly-in !

Now follows a picture of your hostel entrance.

Welcome to the Paris' 9th arrondissement! You will be based in Montmartre, which is a famous Paris' quarter. There are famous monuments like the Sacré-Coeur cathedral, and places as famous as the "Butte Montmartre": that is a great spot to visit for tourism!

Your youth hostel's name is "Le Vintage". Bedrooms are known for being well provided with WiFi, convenient bathrooms and as cosy as possible. And plus it is in the heart of Paris

About the city

Bonjour and welcome to Paris, the capital of France, its biggest city and one of the best vacation spots in the world. Paris is called the City of Light, and probably the most romantic city in the world. Here you'll find the world's center of culture, art, fashion and cuisine. See the famous spots in Paris that inspired great literature, painters of genius, stunning architecture and parks. Breathtaking beauty is everywhere you look.

Paris is quite literally the center of France. With over one sixth of the French population living in the Paris region, the city teems with life.

The city also condenses most of France's aeronautics' sector, with companies such as Dassault, Safran, Clean Sky, MBDA and many others all situated in the Paris region. The world's most prestigious universities such as Polytechnique or la Sorbonne make Paris one of the largest student cities in the world.

Going out

Paris offers numerous ideas for things to do, day and night: Exhibitions, shopping, music, etc. Here are our suggestions...

Monuments and museums

✈ Eiffel Tower

A not-to-be-missed monument and symbol of the capital, the Eiffel Tower stands 324 m tall, and weighs 10,100 tons. Created in 2 years, 2 months and 5 days, it was built for the Exposition Universelle of 1889.

You can go up the Eiffel Tower by the stairs or by lift. On the completely refurbished 1st floor, there are shops; on the 2nd, treat yourself to a gastronomic meal at the famous Jules Verne restaurant, 125 meters above ground. Finally on the 3rd floor you are at cloud level and have an exceptional 360° view!

✈ Louvre

Every trip to the capital deserves a visit to the Louvre to discover the wealth of treasures it contains. The museum houses western works of art dating from the Middle Ages to 1848, in addition to collections of ancient oriental, Egyptian, Greek, Etruscan and Roman civilizations, as well as graphic and Islamic arts. From room to room, the former royal palace reveals its masterpieces to the public: the Mona Lisa, The Raft of the Medusa, the Venus de Milo, and The Winged Victory of Samothrace.

✈ Arc de Triomphe

Situated at the Place de l'Etoile, overlooking the Champs-Élysées, the Arc de Triomphe is the biggest arch in the world. It was commissioned by Napoleon in 1806 to celebrate his victory at Austerlitz.

Bars and restaurants

✈ Le Syphax

One of the cheapest bars in Paris, can be found in the heart of the 9th arrondissement. With the cost of a pint of beer at 3 euros, the place is always packed. The icing on the cake: A long 'happy hour', which lasts from 4pm to 1.30am in the morning.

✈ Rue Mouffetard

Busy rue Mouffetard, one of the French capital's oldest streets, gently guides you down a slope of Montagne Sainte Geneviève, one of seven hills surrounding the heart of Paris; the street is famous for its quaint and typically French atmosphere. Countless restaurants and cafes jostle for room along with the butcher shops, greengrocers, fishmongers, cheese shops and bakeries all along this long (650 m) yet narrow (7 m) paved way. Very popular with students, the Mouffetard area is even busier at night, especially on Place de la Contrescarpe where it would be sacrilege not to stop for coffee at an outdoor table, overlooking the fountain!

✈ Cour du faubourg

The Cour du faubourg, just a few steps from the Bastille, is one of the cheapest restaurants in Paris. The cooking is simple and copious and the prices unbeatable: open lunchtime only, this (social reinsertion) restaurant has a menu at €9.50.

✈ Pho Bahn Cuon

If you have a taste for something different, you'll find cuisine with exotic flavours at affordable prices. For the best in Asian cooking at inexpensive prices, head over to the Chinese district in the 13th arrondissement.

Estimated weather

Useful information

Shops are usually open from 9:00am to 6:00pm with no break. Supermarkets are open until 8:30pm. After the close, you can go to grocery but it'll be more expensive. ATMs will charge you for withdrawing money from a foreign bank.

Emergency numbers are the following (the calls can be answered in 40 languages):

- 15 for medical emergencies
- 17 for the police
- 18 for the fire brigade
- 112 for the European emergency number

To call someone out of France dial 00 then the relevant country and phone number without the first 0. To call France from abroad, dial 00 33 then the phone number without the first 0.

You can get a plan of subway by asking it at the counter in each station. You also can use the website ratp.fr to plan your travels in Paris or directly download the application.
